

The International Association of Culinary Professionals proudly celebrated 10 years of Gastronomica with a special anniversary party at Fenouil restaurant on April 21, 2010 at the IACP conference in Portland, Oregon.

To Portland IACP Host Committee Chair Mike Thelin and Vice Chair Heather Jones, we wish to convey our admiration for their unmatched vision, verve, and execution in making this a night to remember.

We especially thank our generous hosts at Fenouil Restaurant: Proprietors Chris & Tyanne Dussin / Executive Chef Jake Martin / Executive Pastry Chef Kristen Murray / Additional thanks to: Bette Sinclair Public Relations / Cacao / Deschutes Brewery / Little T American Baker / Olympic Provisions / Oregon Cheese Guild / Stumptown Coffee Roasters / The Art Institute of Portland

About the IACP: The International Association of Culinary Professionals (IACP) is a worldwide forum for the development and exchange of information, knowledge, and inspiration within the professional food and beverage community. With nearly 3,000 members from more than 32 countries, this organization of creative and talented professionals is engaged in and committed to excellence in the food industry.

